To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Joseph Middleton, and I am a feature film casting director. My movies include “The Bourne Identity”, “The Bourne Supremacy”, “Mr. & Mrs. Smith”, “Legally Blonde”, “Old School”, “American Pie”, “Bring it On”, “The Heartbreak Kid”, “Dawn of the Dead”, “Nick and Norah’s Infinite Playlist” as well as the upcoming films “The Twilight Saga: New Moon” and “Cirque du Freak”. I’ve been awarded Casting Director of the Year in 1997 and currently serve on the board of Casting Society of America. My complete resume can be seen at <http://www.imdb.com/name/nm0585523/>

I have had the great pleasure of working with the very talented George Caceres. I have a very good and long-standing relationship with him that comprises over five years. Mr. Caceres has a love for the profession and a sincere interest in, and concern for his students. I remain very impressed by his talent, professional demeanor, and his wonderful rapport with people of all ages, especially children. His ability to connect with his students and his knowledge of the acting process, are both truly superior. It is very rare that I meet someone who consistently goes out of his way in the interest of his students, all the while raising two children of his own, serving on several boards, and donating hours and money to many charitable organizations.

Mr. Caceres is remarkable. He is an asset to the entertainment industry and instrumental in the development of its talent. I expect nothing but great things for him and his school, and I trust that one day soon I will have the great fortune with working with him again.

Thank you for your consideration,

Joseph Middleton, C.S.A.
