Dear George,

I am so excited about Youth Film Academy, and the opportunities that are in store for the students. I was so impressed the entire facility; the exceptional training the students receive, not only in the craft of acting, but how Youth Film Academy educates them for a successful career in the entertainment industry.

As you well know, I love to scout talent at your school because you take them to the level where they can make an easy transition from student to working actor, making my job easier.

There is no doubt that Youth Film Academy will have the next generation of working actors.

Warmest Regards,

Mara Santino
