To The Parents and Students of the Youth Film Academy

I want to take this opportunity to say congratulations to all of you who have been selected to study at the Youth Film Academy. George Caceras has founded this Academy and put together a truly exciting program to train and educate those individuals who want to make show business their career. George has a passion and knowledge about the business of show business and over the years we have worked together in the talent aspect of the industry. I have been able to scout talent who have trained in his schools who have gone on to work in such projects as Disney's Bedtime Stories, ABC's Desperate Housewives, Nickelodeon's iCarly, ABC's Better Off Ted, Mpower Picture's 'Snowmen', Lower Learning, and many more. George is supported by many Hollywood professionals who keep tabs on the talent in the diverse divisions the school teaches- filmmaking, producing, acting etc. I have the school on my radar and I look forward to coming to visit and scouting some of Hollywood's future stars!

All the Best,

Susie Mains
